LITERY RELICS.

From the New York Register, published March 8, 1833, loaned us by Mr. Frank Fairbanks, we extract two more items of interest. As glass blowing is a comparatively be greatly curtailed by his occupation. and as one of the Bowling Green papers recently said that 'glass blowers blowed the saloons at night," we would direct their attention to the following patent issued for this purpose (glass blowing) fifty-eight years ago :

"GLASS BLOWING BY MACHINERY Among the prizes by the Paris Academ I Science, at their last sitting, was the tollowing :- "To Israel Robinet, workman, for the substitution of the action of a maglass blowing, 8,000 francs." By means of glass blower will, in tuture, be preserved, and the project of this manufacture greatly improved, both as regards accuracy of form and the capability of making articles of greater dimensions than was formerly

The second item or article is the folowing, which gives us a little incite into the early history of Gen B. F. Butler, as well as some startling statistics on the temperance question 58 years ago:]

THE PROCESSION. Benjamin F. Butler Esq., in his admirblo essays, (and which, by the way, he is pledged to re-commence about this time,) puts down the whole expense of ardent spirit to the Umted States, at $120,000,-000. It is presumed this is correct, and I therefore shall make it the basis of a few remarks. We will suppose this sum to be in specie-in Spanish dollars. How long will it take a man to count it-counting 100 a minute, and continuing at that rate uninterruptedly 12 hours each day? As he would count 6,000 an hour, it would take him 20,000 hours, or 41 years and some days to count the whole.

If each dollar weighs an ounce, the whole 120,000,000 will weigh 37,500 tons. This would load 27,375 wagons, giving 1, 500 pounds to each wagon. Place these wagons in a continued line, and allow 7 yards to each wagon and horses, and the whole would reach one hindre and nine miles. Sixty millions of gallons of ardent spirit re annually consumed in the United States. This, allowing 63 gallons to hogshead, would require 952,380 hogsheads, and 60 gallons over. Allow hogshead to a wagon, and 952,380 wagon will be required. These wagons, allowing 7 yards to each, and 251 wagons to mile, would reach 3.794 miles There are 300,000 drunkards in the United States; three-fourths of whom are heads of families, and each of these families on an average embrace four individ ilies on an average embrace four individ nals besides the drunkard himself. The aggregate number of these is 225,000 families, and 900,000 individuals, exclusive of the drunken head, who goes among

There are 150,000 paupers in the United States, made so by ardent spirit, and 75,-

Now, disbeliever in the temperance reform, and opposer of temperance socieites, take your stand with me on some emi nence and see this procession move on, 1st Comes the man spending 41 years ounting the money paid as the expenses of using ardent spirit in the United States 2d. The 27,375 wagons loaded with specie and carrying 1,500 pounds to the regon-these reach one hundred and nine 3d. Come the 952,380 wagons having drinker for a driver. These reach away back 3,794 miles, and they will be long passing by. 4th. Next come the 300,000 drunkards, a speciacle loathsome and sickening; these are followed by women and childrenpaupers-criminals-but enough-m soul revolts at the sad, painful, shameful sight-O when, when will our laud be delivered from this worst of curses!

Oh the outside of last week's imue of the founnal. Fisk's letter of acceptance was published in part. The conclusion gives an files of the man-as a man-and as a religious Temperance worker, and as large-harted Patriot, whose acquaintance night to be made, that it seems best to let the reader have the whole. Read this con clusion and meditate on what he says :

"I shall hear with glad heart and rever nt hands the only party standard on which is inscribed, "For God, and Home and Native Land;" the standard of th only party which recognizes God as the correspondent and would defend His holy day from desecration; which i he guardien of home's best interests and the defender of the nation through these, and which, burying the dead past of sec tional strife and bitterness, would build a living future, on the sure basis of subc manhood and pure womanhood and untainted youth, for all our united country
